

QUEENSLAND
CONFIDENTIAL
Want more? go to couriermail.com.au/confidential

Jasmin Lill Phone 3666 6307 Email lillj@qnp.newsltd.com.au • Josh Robertson Phone 3666 6822 Email robertsonjo@qnp.newsltd.com.au

Down-to-earth star who's worth a gaze

DIVA-like turns were noticeably absent when Kelly Rowland hit town at the weekend.

We're told Beyonce's ex-bandmate was a delight on stage and off at the Big Gay Day, sharing a tent with event host and Kiwi comedian Cal Wilson.

A couple of seats, bottles of water and a few cans of Red Bull were all it took to keep the chart-topper happy.

And she didn't even flinch when an exuberant woman dancing in the front row tossed her sweaty singlet at her.

Instead, a super-smiley Rowland slid in to the shirt, signed it and threw it back to the fan.

She also scrambled back on stage for an unscheduled encore, even after the last DJ's decks were set up on stage.

