

Best of British party to mark Her birthday

A CELEBRATION of our British ancestry should attract a right royal crowd to New Farm's Queens Arms Hotel this Sunday for a tippie.

The James St venue will host a Royal Garden Party from 3pm to late to toast the Queen's Birthday.

There will be live outdoor music as well as beer from the event's major sponsor Peroni Draught, wine, food stalls, Wii stations, DJs and a mechanical surfboard competition.

Live music is a major attraction with an outstanding line-up of talent including the Gin Club and Gonzalez 3 along with Mark Lowndes, and Brisbane's top DJ, Mr Sparkle, who will take the Queen's Birthday celebrations well into the night.

Entry is free though guests are encouraged to make a gold-coin donation to support Youngcare, to raise funds for the Youngcare Apartments Gold Coast project. Phone 3358 2799 or visit www.qahotel.com.

BULLDOG SPIRIT: Queens Arms manager Hugh Doyle offers a lager to Audrey

Lap it up like royalty for Queen's bash

A CELEBRATION of British ancestry will have every man and his dog at New Farm's Queens Arms Hotel on Sunday.

The James St venue will host a Royal Garden Party from 3pm to toast the Queen's birthday.

There will be live music, beer from the event's major sponsor, Peroni Draught, wine, food stalls, Wii stations, DJs and a mechanical surfboard competition.

An outstanding line-up of local talent includes headline act the Gin Club, Gonzalez 3, Mark Lowndes, who will open the revelry, and Brisbane DJ Mr Sparkle, who will take the Queen's birthday celebrations into the night.

Entry is free but guests are encouraged to make a gold coin donation to Youngcare.

Phone 3358 2799 or visit www.qahotel.com.

Crown glory: Queen's Arms manager Hugh Doyle with British bulldog Audrey, who loves nothing better than a sip of lager.